

Celebrate National Healthcare Decisions Day

You're invited to one of the most important conversations of your life

Come experience an innovative game called "Hello" that makes conversations about living and dying and what matters most to you easy and even fun.

Wednesday, April 19, 7 - 9pm, River View Cemetery

0300 SW Taylors Ferry Road

If you can answer these questions, you can play this game!

Question 8

What music do you want to be listening to on your last day?

Question 5

If you needed help going to the bathroom today, who is the first person you would ask to help you?
Who would you never be able to ask?

Question 11

In order to provide you with the best care possible, what three non-medical facts should your doctor know about you?

"What a delightful evening my husband and I had as we played this game for the first time! After 42 years of marriage it was wonderful to discuss something new and different." Mitzi, age 67

Presented as a community service by the non-profit burial grounds River View Cemetery & White Eagle Memorial Preserve in partnership with Holly Pruett, Life-Cycle Celebrant & the Death Talk Project.
